Look for the accommodation symbol when you go out. Whether you are a nonsmoker or smoker, your preference will be respected.

And that's a good sign.

Going out for dinner in Franklin County should be an enjoyable experience–whether you're a nonsmoker or a smoker.

That's why you should know about The Accommodation Program. Right now, over 100 special places in your area are participating in The Accommodation Program. You'll find that the owners of these local restaurants, hotels, bowling centers and other popular places are going out of their way to make everyone feel welcome and comfortable in their establishments.

Businesses that participate in The Accommodation Program receive special training materials and guidelines on how to accommodate all customers–nonsmokers and smokers alike. Plus, they get technical information for improving ventilation in designated smoking and nonsmoking areas.

So the next time you go out, just look for the red and green symbol of The Accommodation Program.

For your convenience, the attached wallet guide lists the names and addresses of local places that participate in The Accommodation Program. When you see the symbol on the door, you'll know that you'll be welcome no matter what your preference.

Be sure to keep the wallet guide handy, so you can refer to it when you go out. In the coming months, even more places in Franklin County will be participating in The Accommodation Program. You can get an updated list, just by calling 1-800-757-1555.

These establishments participate in The Accommodation Program.
It's proof of their commitment to your comfort and satisfaction.

1058

2061038135

Courtesy of Philip Morris Incorporated. The Accommodation Program has the support of the Central Ohio Restaurant Association, the Ohio Restaurant Association, the Greater Columbus Hotel & Motel Association, the Ohio Hotel & Motel Association, the Central Ohio Licensed Beverage Association, and the Columbus Bowling Centers Organization.

Source: https://www.industrydocuments.ucsf.edu/docs/nrwp0003

2061038135